Tune's Notes

In Psalm 86, Israel's king David writes: "a band of ruthless men seeks my life."

The psalm could have come from a number of times in David's life, but the interesting thing about the psalm is that he focuses not on his plight, but on God.

Although he addresses God as "you" throughout the prayer, there are six times he does so in a special way (only five of them appear in your English Bible). Read the psalm this way, putting the emphasis in these passages:

Verse 2 – YOU are my God . . .

Verse 5 – YOU are forgiving and good . . .

Verse 10 – YOU alone are God.

Verse 15 – YOU, O Lord are a compassionate and gracious God . . .

Verse 17 – YOU, O Lord, have helped me . . .

David wants God to hear that God is the focus of his life and prayer.

David has three motivations to appeal to God: First, God's nature. He is forgiving and good, abounding in love and faithfulness, compassionate, gracious, and slow to anger. He is unique: there is none like Him and He alone is God.

Second, he knows God can help him because He has helped him before.

Third, David is the Lord's servant. John Goldingay writes: "By definition servants are people who are weak and needy; they have no power and no resources of their own and have to trust their master. They are people who have only one master and serve that master wholeheartedly. But the master is someone with power and resources, and a servant can call on the master and expect to find support and help. The relationship is not merely a contractual one... It makes demands on the servant and takes away from the servant's freedom, but it also makes demands on the master and takes away from the master's freedom. It gives the servant something to appeal to. In earthly servant-master relationships, doubtless that often failed to work, and a servant might feel inhibited in appealing to it. Servants of the Lord need no such hesitation."<sup>1</sup>

When the Lord is our master, and we are His servant, we can count on His faithfulness to answer when we call.

Love you all.

Mike

I Am - Not!

Jesus replied, "If I glorify myself, my glory means nothing. My Father, whom you claim as your God, is the one who glorifies me. Though you do not know him, I know him. If I said I did not, I would be a liar like you, but I do know him and obey his word. Your father Abraham rejoiced at the thought of seeing my day; he saw it and was glad."

"You are not yet fifty years old," they said to him, "and you have seen Abraham!"

"Very truly I tell you," Jesus answered, "before Abraham was born, I am!"

At this, they picked up stones to stone him, but Jesus hid himself, slipping away from the temple grounds.

(John 8:54–59 NIV)

The end of this story is pretty shocking! I am not talking about the crowd's desire to kill Jesus. That is understandable. The shocking part is Jesus' declaration that He is God.

Many people want us to think about Jesus as a good teacher telling us the best way to live or as a miracle worker who healed people. Many want us to think about Jesus as a rebel out to change the world or as prophet calling us back to the LORD. Many of us want to play god by molding Jesus into their own image.

I want you to know that Jesus is GOD. When Jesus states that "... before Abraham was born, I am!" - he is declaring to all of us that He is GOD. The crowd that wanted to kill Him understood that was what he was saying.

I am not god. If I honestly read John's gospel I have no choice about Jesus' true identity. He is GOD and I am not. Like those early disciples I am to surrender to Him and allow Him to mold me into His image.

GRACE + PEACE

Clothing Requested by May 19 for Habtu Zemech's Next Trip to Ethiopia

Clothing for children - all ages - and clothing for the young men in the Preaching School are requested for Habtu Zemech's next trip to Ethiopia. The men's clothing may include shirts/ties/jackets/slacks.

He requested that the garments be folded and placed in heavy-duty plastic bags. The bags should be brought in NO LATER THAN MAY 19.

At right is a photo from a previous trip. Notice the smile on the face of this beautiful child with her new clothes.

Habtu is making what has become a semi-annual visit to his homeland. After arriving in the capital city, Addis Ababa, he then travels around the country to visit the many congregations, orphanages, schools and other charitable works conducted by the Christians in that nation.

An article about his last trip, November 2012, was included in the Family Life issue of May 5.

Members are requested to make out checks to "Camp WaMaVa" NOT to Falls Church.

An article about the Camp, its history and its close ties to Falls Church, will be included in the next issue of Family Life.

The staff vacancies are:

Week 2 - 1 teacher

Two of our Elders are available after the morning assembly, in room 221 on the main level, to meet with anyone who would like prayer for special concerns.

Ceremony Planned for May 19 for New Deacons

The inauguration ceremony for the six new deacons is scheduled for next Sunday morning during the worship assembly.

The six men are Brian Collins, Brandon Durant, John Reagan, Wilfredo Reyes, Hal Swetnam and Jonah Shumate.

Please continue to pray for them as they assume this new and increased level of responsibility, and also for the current deacons, ministers and Elders of this congregation.

While you're at it, you might let all our leaders know how much you appreciate the work, love, talents and commitment they bring to this critically important service in the name of our Lord.

Prayer Sisters Reveal Tea Set for May 19

A "Reveal Tea" in which you learn the identity of your Prayer Sister is planned:

Date: May 19, 2013
Time: 4 pm
Place: Fellowship Hall

Please bring a small gift for your Sister with HER NAME clearly marked on the OUTSIDE and YOUR NAME marked on the INSIDE. (Remember, cost should be under $5.00).

This is the opportunity to open gifts and spend time with the Prayer Sister who has been praying for you over the last few months. Please plan to attend this wonderful and encouraging fellowship.

If you are unable to attend, please contact Monica Tune and give her your gift in advance so she can present it to your Prayer Sister.

M.S. Pledges Deadline Is Extended

While the pledges for the 2013 Multiple Sclerosis Walk were requested last week, it's not too late to turn in your contribution. Checks should be made to "N.M.S.S.," but cash is acceptable as well. N.M.S.S. stands for the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, which sponsors the event to raise funds for research and treatment of M.S. The M.S.Keteers team includes captain and longtime veteran Kevin Thie; his daughter Candace Thie; and fellow walkers Dorothy Eckert and James Bickle.

Agape Group Potomac Acres (Group 6) has changed its neighbor lunch on May 19 to a breakfast or brunch on May 18. Details will be communicated directly to Group members.

The Adult Education Ministry will meet at noon on Sunday, May 19, in R. 120 (Elders Conference Room).

Lunch will be provided. Questions should be directed to John Waterston.

VBS Volunteer Meeting Coming Up on May 19

Anyone who is interested in helping with Vacation Bible School is invited to a brief, informational meeting on May 19 in R. 121, immediately following the morning assembly.

Kelly Shumate and Jenna Mayfield are directing this year's gala, scheduled for Aug. 9 & 10.

The theme for 2013 is "God's Backyard Bible Camp - Where Kids Have a Blast Serving Jesus!"

VBS is one activity which needs a lot of "hands on" help. "There are many jobs available," Kelly says, "so come and learn more about what you can do to help." A VBS table is set up in the lobby, so if you have any questions, stop by.

If you already know you'd like to help, but you can't attend this meeting, stop by the table or call Jenna or Kelly.

Room Needed

Kathy Bowden is issuing a request for a "...responsible Christian young man who needs to rent a room beginning June 2-August." She adds that he just earned a Masters degree in physics from Texas A & M and he has a job in the District, near the Dept. of Agriculture. He also has a car and will rent an apartment with other men after August. She concludes, "I can vouch for his character. Help!"
