Tune's Notes

Is there a difference between doing the “will” of God and following the “law” of God?

Our daily Bible readings this week provide some insight.

Ahab was the most wicked king of the Old Testament. The writer of Kings says there never was a fellow like Ahab who so sold himself to do evil. In fact, God detested him so much that the Lord decreed the death of his whole family (this was God’s will).

Along comes Jehu who is given Ahab’s kingdom (Israel) and whose task is to destroy the house of Ahab. What does he do? He has the heads of all Ahab’s descendants (70 of whom were minors) lopped off and piled in a heap at Jezreel.

It was what God wanted, right?

Not exactly.

Was this to be the way a king, anointed by the Lord, behaved?

David was anointed by God, but he did not raise his hand against Saul.

Ultimately, Jehu was condemned because he did not “keep the law of the Lord with all his heart” and God never sanctioned the massacre at Jezreel (see Hosea 1:4).

Sometimes, the problem with Christians is that in our zeal to accomplish the will of God, we ignore the way of God, which is why, in all we do to fulfill His will, we should ask: “Is this the way Christ would do it? How does God want me to act?”

Perhaps a New Testament example will be helpful. Jude wrote to urge Christians to “contend earnestly for the faith,” a passage that has been a justification for all kinds of boorish behavior in the name of Christ. And yet, God does not leave us to our own devices in our earnestness. He tells us to build ourselves up in the faith, pray, be the kind of people God can love, and be merciful to those weak in faith, and rescue the perishing with a surgeon’s skill (vss. 22-23). God’s “what” must always be accomplished by God’s “how.”

Love you all.

Mike

Fun Winter/Spring!

One of the purposes of our Youth Ministry (3rd - 12th grade) is to encourage our teens and students to develop friendships with fellow believers. The “churchy” word for this is “fellowship.” Over the last few months we have had some fun fellowship in the Kids for Christ (3rd - 6th grade) and Upper Room Teen Ministry (7th - 12th grade).

In February, not only did the URTM travel to Gatlinburg, TN for the Winterfest Conference, but also the Kids for Christ went bowling!

We had a great group of students meet at the AMF Lanes in Annandale. There was about 2 hours of bowling and a ton of pizza eaten that night!

If your student missed this don’t worry; another KFC Night will be coming up in May.

Just last Saturday, March 29, the URTM had a great time at Nerf Night. Once again a ton of pizza was eaten as about 15 teens played capture the flag using Nerf dart guns. (We try to pick up all the darts but if you happen to find a foam Nerf dart please let me know.)

Keep your eyes and ears open for up coming Youth Ministry events for your 3rd - 12th grade student or teen.

Easter Egg Hunt Set for April 13

The Young Professionals Group will host an Easter Egg Hunt on April 13 from 4:30 to 5:30 pm. There will be hunting opportunities for all ages, including adults.

Healthy Snack Collection for Bailey's Elementary School Continues

Our annual Healthy Snack Collection for children who attend Bailey's Elementary School for the Arts & Sciences, which began last Sunday, continues through the end of April. The school has many children whose families struggle to provide the essentials.

The healthy snacks not only help children develop a taste for healthy food, rather than for junk food, but also help supplement the food and nutrition students receive on school days. The school uses the collected snacks to provide dry, in-school snacks for hungry children, either between breakfast and lunch or before they return home.

Below is a list of recommended snacks that are easy for children to pick up with their fingers, are low in sugar but high in fiber, are PEANUT-FREE, and are enriched with vitamins and minerals. The children DO NOT use milk with cereal.

Kellogg's:	Crispix or Wheaties
General Mills:	Fiber One, Cheerios, Rice Chex, Wheat Chex, Corn Chex, Multi Grain Cheerios, Total, Kix or Life
Kashi:	GoLean
Quaker:	Oatmeal Squares
Post:	Shredded wheat

Plans for the Ladies Lock-In of April 25-26 Are Lining Up; Now is the Time to Sign Up

Now that you know both the date and the location for the Ladies Lock-In, there is only one thing left to do - SIGN UP!!!

The Friday night meal will be catered, so Monica Tune must have an accurate head count in order to place the correct order. So please sign up - pretty please??

The program will begin on Friday April 25 at 6:30 pm, break later that evening, and resume at 8:45 am on Saturday April 26 with breakfast. Since the program will conclude around noon on Saturday, there won't be a lunch.

And in case you've forgotten since last week, the lock-in will be held at the home of

The theme is "Titus 2:3-5" as follows:

3 Likewise, teach the older women to be reverent in the way they live, not to be slanderers or addicted to much wine, but to teach what is good. 4 Then they can urge the younger women to love their husbands and children, 5 to be self-controlled and pure, to be busy at home, to be kind, and to be subject to their husbands, so that no one will malign the word of God. NIV

There WILL of course be guest speakers, and this year they will be our own Falls Church sisters. There will be three presentations, one Friday evening, and two Saturday morning, beginning at 9:45 am.

Your brains are probably whirring away, trying to guess the most likely candidates. However, they are sworn to secrecy, so don't even think of asking the ones you suspect.

As usual, following the program on Friday we will have time to visit with each other. All of us are blessed with many friends - the ones we know already and the ones we just haven't met yet.

But one thing is certain - we NEVER have enough time to catch up. But this gives us the opportunity to kick back, relax and put a dent in the conversational backlog!
